

1rst International Seminar for Students
(Post-Graduate, PHD)
in Sport History

Supervised by

Dave Day, Professor, Manchester Metropolitan University

Jean-François Loudcher, Professor, Bordeaux University

11th-13th September 2017

Sport Institute, rue Camille Jullian, Pessac, 33800 (salle B, Bâtiment recherche, 1^{er} étage and site of Victoire for Dewey's presentation)

Monday 11th September

Begin student presentations (everyone has an hour – 20/30min presentation plus discussion)

14.45 hrs Coffee

15 hrs Presentations

15 hrs - Lisa Taylor (MMU) Hidden histories: Competitive women's rowing in Britain since 1945

16 hrs - Julien Krier (Bordeaux) - Studying the Training of Physical and Sport Education Teachers at Bordeaux and its Consequences onto the Local Sport Development; The History of the Regional Training Sport Centre for PE Teacher (CREPS) of Talence (1941-1983) and its Actors

17 hrs Coffee

17.30 hrs - Liam Dyer (MMU) - The Role of the Industrial Middle Class in the Provision and Control of Victorian Sport in the North: The London and North-Western Railway Company in Crewe

18.30 hrs - Florian Hugedet & Romain Baron (Besançon) - An example of French PE teacher Recruitment Procedure: Between Knowledge-Sharing and Moulding at the "Ecole Normale Supérieure" in Sport Sciences and Physical Education of Rennes (2002-2017)

19.30 hrs - Meal

Tuesday 12th September

08.00 hrs - Coffee

08.30 hrs - Presentations

08.30 hrs - Czegledi Orsolya (URePSSS Laboratory, University of Lille 2) - Nature and Tourism Management in Hungary: A Socialist Heritage?

09.30 hrs - Johanna Mellis (Florida) - : Post-1956 Elite Athletes in Hungary: The Happiest Athletes in the Socialist Camp

10.30 hrs - Coffee

11.00 hrs - Omar Dieng (Besançon) - Senegalese Wrestling in Daily Newspapers of the 2000s. A Physical Activity between Tradition and Modernity?

12.00 hrs - Eddy Estlin (MMU) – Motion, Rest and Physical Literacy ; Historical Perspectives for 1837-1936

13.00 hrs Lunch (Buffet on Site)

14 hrs - Presentations

14.00 hrs - Jean-Francois Loudcher - An analysis of the Representation of Triat's Gymnasium (1856) through the theoretical frame of Michel Foucault

15.00 hrs – 16.00 hrs - Loïc Delacroix (Bordeaux) - Identities Using of the Traditional Physical Cultures in France by the « Basques » People from the End of the Nineteenth century: Times, Production and Reconfiguration of the Symbolic and Practical Boundaries

16 hrs - Coffee

16.30 hrs – 17.30 hrs - Martyn Cooke (MMU) The origins and early development of association football in The Potteries: 1840 – 1914

17.30 hrs – 18hrs Willy Hugedet (Besançon) - Pierre Parlebas, motor behaviour and New Education: What Research Perspectives? A Short Presentation....

18.30 hrs (Victoire Site) Dave Day – Dewey Presentation (site of Victoire)

20.00 hrs Dinner

Wednesday 13th September

08.30 – 10.30 hrs Working breakfast on future funding (2018)–Cultural and Historical Perspectives on Sport Coaching in a Comparative Approach (UK-France)

10.30hrs - Presentations

10.30 hrs - Corine Guillon (Bordeaux) - The Emergence of Sport in the Regional Newspaper through the Example of « La Petite Gironde » (1872-1913)

11.30 hrs - Nick Piercey – My PhD journey

12.00 hrs Workshop summary

Participation is free,

contact; Jean-francois.loudcher@u-bordeaux.fr